Stimulus Funding Inventory Tool

An inventory of stimulus funding streams from Federal granting agencies and other entities to inform clients of available recovery funding opportunities and corresponding guidance and allow for analysis of funding options.

Challenge

The COVID-19 pandemic has introduced an unprecedented amount of funding available for response, recovery, and progressive future planning. Each of the pandemic-related relief bills have new funding with unique sets of eligibility stipulations, reporting requirements, and allocations. States, localities, and other eligible applicants need a strategic mechanism to identify options for funding, understand eligible costs and requirements for use, and protect themselves against de-obligation of funds.

Our approach

Deloitte Risk & Financial Advisory's Scout Stimulus Funding Inventory Tool provides an in-depth inventory of funding opportunities made available as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic and may be used for a variety of analysis of grant and funding opportunities. The tool includes a visualization of funding distribution; opportunities; and associated requirements including, but not limited to, federal funding streams, eligibility criteria, associated timelines and deadlines, and funding application submission format and requirements.

Providing value in times of CRISIS

Obtain a full view of available funding across states, counties, cities, and other eligible entities

Understand which costs may or may not be eligible under the federal relief bills

Gain insight into potential fund use overlaps to assist in avoiding potential duplication of benefits

Understand longer-term reporting and documentation requirements in order to maintain funds

Use to inform a strategy that fully utilizes funding from multiple sources and helps applicants accomplish their goals

Additional Managed Services

Strategy & Planning:

Design strategic programs that follow policy and eligibility requirements to optimize the use of funds and promote stakeholder priorities and long-term planning
